

Name _____

Student ID _____

Instructor _____

Date Due _____

FRESHMAN SUCCESS LA 10101 - DAVIS LIBRARY SCAVENGER HUNT

 The Following Questions Deal With Davis Library at the University of Rio Grande **

1. Outside the front door are the Library's hours - List them below:
2. Enter the Library and walk to the Circulation Desk. This is where you check out and return books, check out current periodicals (magazines, journals, newspapers, etc.), get materials on reserve and get help for the copiers. Request a special pencil from the Staff and show it to your Instructor.
3. Walk to the Microforms Area, which is catty-corner from the Circulation Desk. Older issues of periodicals are kept here on either microfilm or microfiche. Below, list the name of a periodical (Not The New York Times please) that's either on microfilm or microfiche that corresponds alphabetically (and approximately) to your last name (Example: Student Name is John Smith; Periodical Title is = Sky & Telescope):
4. Walk to the Reference Desk. Behind the Reference Desk are the offices of Tim Snow and Amy Wilson. They can get you started on finding information and doing research in Davis Library. If they're available, ask either of them to sign their initials below:
5. While still at the Reference Desk: Obtain a copy of the red "RioLINK" brochure. Familiarize yourself with the various automated services that are provided by Davis Library. Show this brochure to your Freshman Success Instructor and briefly paraphrase below Davis Library's "Printing" philosophy:
6. Ride the elevator down to the Ground Floor. This is where the Davis Library RioLINK Computer Lab is located. You can email, do word processing, and web browsing here. Also on the Ground Floor is where many of the Library's older periodicals are kept bound in paper. Pick any periodical issue in this Bound Periodical Area that corresponds as close as possible to the month and date that you graduated from elementary school. Write the title of the periodical below, the date of that issue, and a brief description of the cover of that periodical below:
7. Ride the elevator to the Second Floor of the Library. Admire the view out the back window. This floor is a controlled study area where conversation must be kept to a minimum. This is also where the circulating book collection is kept. Find a book here by call number order that is a close approximation to the last three digits of your student ID Number. (Example: Student ID = 123456; Book Call Number & Title = 459.09 D812, Early History of the Rumanian Language) Write down the full call number of the book and the book's title below:
8. *Have a good day. And we mean it, too!