C. Paper Periodical Indexes - The following traditional paper indexes are an alternative way to identify older literature that may be relevant to social work.

1. Social Work Abstracts – This is published four times a year and indexes over 400 US and international journals each year and approximately 450 abstracts are included in each issue. The current issues of this are at the Circulation Desk and older issues (beginning in 1994) are on microfiche. From 1977 – 1993 it was called Social Work Research & Abstracts, which is also on microfiche. Davis Library has most of the older paper version issues of this in storage from 1966 – 1977 when it was called Abstracts for Social Workers.
2. Social Sciences Index - From 1974 to the present, this indexes many professional periodicals and journals in social work and related social science areas. Both this and the following are located in the Reference Collection on the Main Floor.
3. Inventory of Marriage and Family Literature From 1975-1995.
4. Psychological Abstracts - This is the paper version of the above-mentioned PsycINFO database. This is on microfilm from 1927 to 1950 and bound on the Ground Floor from 1951 to 1995. Use the annual cumulative author and subject indexes.

VII. GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS - As a designated and partial US Depository, Davis Library receives many documents produced by the Federal Government. Much of this material may be found throughout the Library such as the above mentioned Statistical Abstracts of the US in the Reference Collection and the ERIC database.

There are many other resources that may be found in the Government Document Collection on the Main Floor, relating to social work such as, Federal Title VI Enforcement to Ensure Nondiscrimination in Federally Assisted Programs [CR 1.2:T53], Directory of National Information Sources on Disabilities [ED 1.30/2:D63], Trends in the Well-being of America’s Children & Youth [HE 1.63], Emerging Infectious Diseases [HE 20.7817], Crime in the US [J1.14/7:991], and Theories of Discrimination [Y3.EQ2:2D63/8].
